

Privacy Statement

United Consumer Finance Inc. is committed to protecting your privacy.

Our Privacy Practices

Our Information Sharing Practices Apply To:

- Customers
- Former Customers
- Applicants

We Collect Information From:

- Applications and other forms you submit, such as your name, address and income
- Your transactions with us and others, such as account balances, fees, payment history and parties to transactions
- Credit Bureaus

We May Disclose The Information Described Above To:

- Other financial services providers, such as credit bureaus and insurance companies
- Any person performing audit, legal, operational or other similar services for United Consumer Finance Inc.
- We report information to affiliated credit reporting agencies.
- Companies, including motor vehicle dealers, with whom and through whom we offer you financing options, to the extent permitted by state law
- Employees who need to know that information to provide services to you.
- We do not disclose and customer's personal financial information to non-affiliated third parties, therefore there is no need to opt out from such disclosures.

Our Security Practices

- United Consumer Finance Inc. takes all reasonable precautions to protect our users' information, both while the information is being transmitted and after it is received by us.
- We have up-to-date physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to guard all Private Information.
- We train our employees on these safeguards

rev. 6.2011